

Students interested in studying human resource management in Salt Lake City, UT, have many schools to choose from. Read on to find out more about one top local school's degree programs, tuition and ranking info to find the right one for you.

!!!School and Ranking Information

At least 13 schools in the Salt Lake City area offer degrees in human resource management. Based on rankings, number of programs offered, and tuition costs, the following school is the top pick for students interested in human resources management.

*__Winner:__ Brigham Young University (BYU) in Provo, UT, is located less than 40 miles from Salt Lake City, UT. The Marriott School of Business offers a Master of Business Administration in Organizational Behavior/Human Resource Management. BYU is nationally ranked and boasts affordable tuition.

!!!School Info Chart

Category	Brigham Young University
__Rankings__	#62 in National Universities (2015); #14 in Best Value Schools (2015); #27 in Best Business Schools (2014)*
__Location__	Provo, UT
__School Type__	4-year; private; not-for-profit
__Tuition & Fees (2014–2015)__	Undergrad: $5,000*
__Business Administration Degrees Offered__	Bachelor's; Master's
__Business Administration Degrees Awarded (all levels) in 2013__	257
__Most Popular Business Administration Degree Level in 2013__	Master's
__Undergraduate Graduation Rate (in 150% of normal degree time) for 2007 Entering Class__	78%
__Noteworthy__	"Financial Times" ranked BYU's human resources MBA program as #1 in the nation

*"Sources: *U.S. News and World Report, **NCES College Navigator, ***Financial Times"*

!!!Brigham Young University

*The Marriott School of Business was named after J. Williard and Alice S. Marriott, founders of the worldwide hotel chain of the same name

* Recent graduates have completed internships at organizations such as Pepsi Bottling Group, General Mills, Dell and LG Electronics.

*95% of graduates found jobs within three months of graduation

Founded in 1875 by Brigham Young, former president of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Brigham Young University has sought from its inception to provide quality educational programs while preserving its commitment to the Christian faith. As of 2014, it had an enrollment of more than 31,000 students.

The Marriott School is one of the nation's leading providers of business degree programs. Its mission is to provide quality business programs that not only prepare students for successful careers but also to maintain exceptional character and moral standards in the cutthroat world of business.

The Master of Business Administration (MBA) in Organizational Behavior/Human Resource Management emphasizes strategic improvement and the pursuit of excellence in the management of human resource functions. Students will gain an in-depth understanding of how to lead and motivate workers, emphasize a team environment, strategically plan for an ideal company workforce and oversee changes in organizational and management structure.