

Panda Snack Cakes

Perfectly panda-licious.

Create your own soft, sweet pandas from coconut marshmallow snack cakes. Everyone will be bamboozled over how unbearably cute these are!

32

Cox

Approximately 1/2 cup white candy coating wafers

2 white Hostess Sno Ball snack cakes

4 Mini Oreos

1 Tootsie Roll

4 white pearl sprinkles

2 dark brown Mini M&M's

Makes 2 Panda Sno Balls

1 Melt white candy coating according to package instructions.

2 Using a knife, make 2 small cuts in the top of the Sno Ball for the ears to fit in. Dip 1/2 of the Mini Oreos into the melted candy coating and place into the slits on top of the Sno Ball for the ears.

3 Soften the Tootsie Roll in the microwave for approximately 5 seconds.

4 Break off 2 small pieces of the Tootsie Roll and make them into a flat, oval shapes approximately 1/2 inch long.

5 Using the melted white candy coating, attach the Tootsie Roll ovals to the front of the Sno Ball for eyes.

6 Using a toothpick dipped in melted candy coating, attach the pearls in the center of the flattened Tootsie Rolls.

7 Attach the mini dark brown M&M to the front of the Sno Ball for the nose using a toothpick dipped in the melted candy coating.

Piñata Rice Krispie Treat

The sweetest party animal.

Fun fiesta food made from a Rice Krispie Treat!

2 store-bought Rice Krispie Treat bars

1 (16 oz.) can white frosting

1 cup sweetened shredded coconut

Blue food coloring gel

Purple food coloring gel

Yellow food coloring gel

Pink food coloring gel

Orange food coloring gel

1 candy eye

6 candy corn

Makes 1 Piñata Rice Krispie Treat

Tip: To achieve the bright colors on the coconut, use food coloring gel found at your local craft stores.

1 Using a knife, cut off about $\frac{1}{3}$ of 1 Rice Krispie Treat bar. Cut off the corners at one end for the piñata head.

2 Attach the head to the end of the other Rice Krispie Treat with frosting.

3 Spread frosting on top of the Rice Krispie Treats. Divide coconut into 5 plastic zipper bags.

4 Place a small amount of food coloring gel in the bag. Place a different color in each bag—a little goes a long way. Knead gel into the coconut to incorporate.

5 Starting with the pink coconut, press one row on the top of the piñata head. Continue to add rows with the remaining colors.

6 Place a small amount of frosting on the back of the candy eye and place on the piñata head.

7 Use frosting to attach 2 candy corn for the ears to the top of the head.

8 Turn 4 candy corn upside down and attach with frosting for the legs.

Chicks on a Stick

Egg-sploding with cuteness.

Get crackin' and make these fun Chicks on a Stick from candy-coated almonds and white chocolate Kit Kat bars!

Approximately 1/2 cup white candy coating wafers

8 yellow Jordan Almonds

8 orange mini chip sprinkles

Black edible marker

1 white chocolate Kit Kat bar

1/4 cup shredded sweetened coconut

Green food coloring

Flower sprinkles

Makes 4 Chicks on a Stick

1 Melt white candy coating according to package instructions.

2 Using a toothpick dipped in melted candy coating, attach an orange mini chip to the front of the yellow Jordan Almond.

3 Make 2 dots with the black edible marker on the Jordan Almond for eyes.

4 Break apart the Kit Kat bar. Attach the chick to the bottom of one Kit Kat stick using melted candy coating. Hold into place until set.

5 Put the coconut in a plastic zipper bag. Place 1 drop of green food coloring in the bag and shake to get the desired green color.

6 Spread a thin layer of melted candy coating on the Kit Kat stick. Immediately press on green coconut.

7 With a toothpick dipped in melted candy coating, attach flower sprinkles on top of the green coconut.

